

When I signed up for truck driving school I didn't know what to expect, I did know I heard a lot of good things about California Career Schools program and I knew this is what I had wanted to do for a long time and it was time to do it. I found my self dealing with a very professional staff from start to finish, I like everything I experienced while learning to drive a tractor trailer at this school. the instructors where knowledgeable experienced and were happy to answer any and all my questions at any given time I got a great deal of road time in witch they not only explained what I needed to do but also how and why. When corrected on any mistakes I was again told this is how you correct them why and most important how that would affect me when working for a company. I was promised job placement with the companies I wanted to work for and to my surprise the school delivered I was hired with Warner enterprises well before my graduation date and report to driver orientation the week after graduation you cant beat knowing that you have a job to go to as soon as you graduate. This is made possible by the reputation this school has in the industry simply the best.

RENE FLORES BERGMANN

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Rene Flores Bergmann". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style with a large initial "R" and "F".